Temple Israel holds a graduation

The graduating class in Moving from Debt to Assets, a program of the Greater Boston Interfaith Organization

BOSTON — On March 27, 19 members of Temple Israel of Boston celebrated their graduation from a six-week class in financial literacy as part of the Moving from Debt to Assets program, run by the Greater Boston Interfaith Organization. This program, which includes the class, a support group, individual financial counseling and a cash grant, is offered to institutions that are members of GBIO. Participants in the program learn to manage their money, create and stick to a budget and achieve financial goals.
